A Woolloomooloo bar and 'indoor-alfresco' dining concept that smashes every stereotype – serving up innovative Mediterranean vegetarian fare with flair and soul. Pairing Australia's pioneer of plant-based cuisine Shannon Martinez, Alibi Bar creates a sensory journey of discovery. Where rattan seating, patterned tiles and tropical greenery come together in a stunning Sydney location, creating an enchanting experience within a green glass pavilion. A stylish Sydney bar and restaurant where smoky chargrilled aromas fill the air, freshly picked herbs dance with fizz of fresh spritzers – and where the sounds of clinking glass toasts the occasion.
